

Yunus عليه السلام Teaches His People

A long time ago, the busy city of Nineveh was full of idols. The people worshipped them instead of Allah.

So, Allah, The Most Merciful, chose a pious man named Yunus to call them back to Him.

Prophet Yunus عليه السلام told them to worship Allah alone.

He reminded them of the greatness of Allah, the Creator of the heavens and the earth and everything within them.

But the people laughed. “Who is this man?” some said.

Others made fun of him saying, “This man is a magician!”

They didn't listen. They didn't care. Again and again, they ignored him.

Yunus عليه السلام tried and tried, until he gave up and left the city. Before leaving, he warned them of Allah's punishment.

Then, the sky grew very dark. The people trembled.

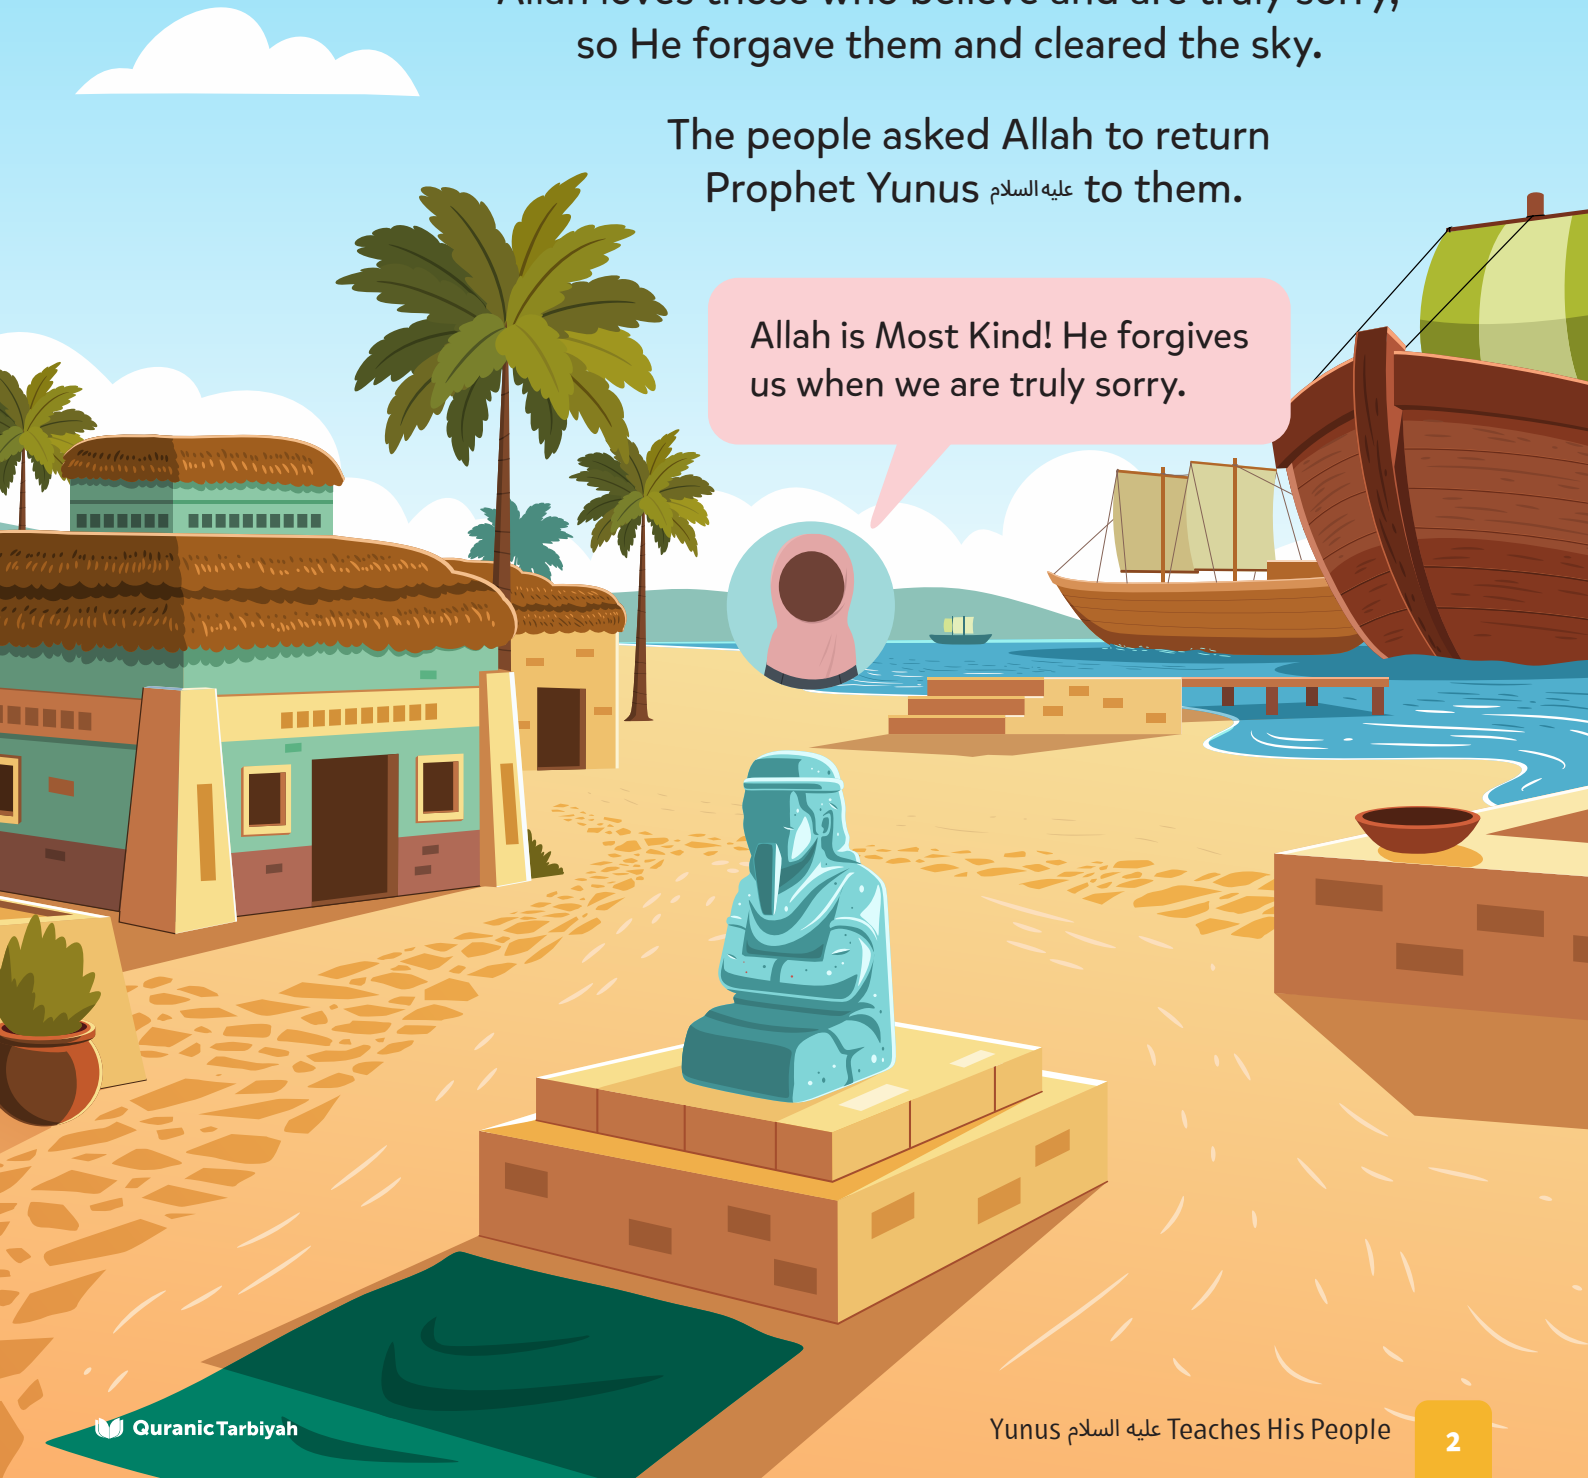

“Remember what Yunus warned us about? He was right!” they cried.

They rushed outside, raised their hands, and begged Allah to forgive them. They promised to worship Allah alone and do good.

Allah loves those who believe and are truly sorry, so He forgave them and cleared the sky.

The people asked Allah to return Prophet Yunus عليه السلام to them.

Allah is Most Kind! He forgives us when we are truly sorry.

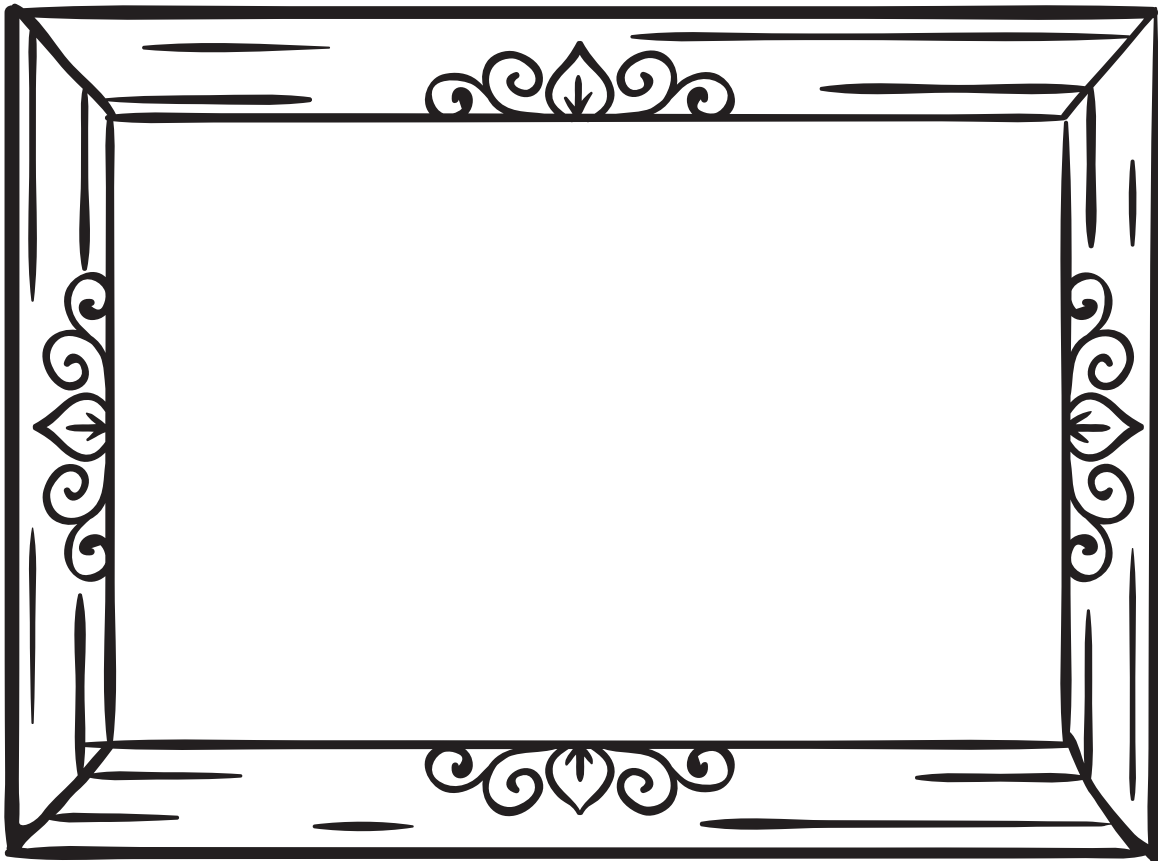

1 Trace the message of Yunus عليه السلام.

Worship

Allah alone.

2 Which of Allah's creations do you think are the most amazing? Draw them, then write or tell your friends why.

Three horizontal lines for writing the answer to question 2.

3

Match each word to its opposite. Then, circle the words that show how the people treated Yunus عليه السلام.

Ignored

Complained

Thanked

Hurt

Helped

Cried

Laughed

Believed

Disbelieved

Listened

4

We can say sorry to Allah by making du'a and by doing good deeds. Write:

O Allah, please forgive me for...

Some good deeds I will do, inshaAllah: