

The Best Man Is Born!

After Prophet 'Isa عليه السلام, many years passed. In Makkah, the people forgot the good teachings of Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام. Allah, the Most Kind, wanted to guide them back to the truth. So He sent the last Prophet, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

One Monday morning, baby Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was born. His mother, Aminah, held him close and smiled with love. Sadly, his father, 'Abdullah, had passed away before he was born.

To help their babies grow strong and healthy, families in Makkah sent them to live in the desert with kind families there.

Allah chose a gentle woman named Halimah as-Sa'diyyah and her family to care for baby Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

From the day she took him home, Halimah's goats gave plenty of milk, and her home was filled with blessings.

When Muhammad ﷺ was six, he travelled with his mother to visit her family in Madinah. On the way home, Aminah became very ill and passed away.

Her kind maid, Barakah, brought Muhammad ﷺ safely back to Makkah.

Muhammad ﷺ then lived with his loving grandfather, 'Abdul-Muttalib.

When he ﷺ was eight years old, his grandfather passed away. Then, his uncle Abu Talib and his wife raised him with great love.

Muhammad ﷺ lost both his parents when he was so young, but Allah took care of him at every moment.

O Allah, please always take care of us too.

1 Trace the name and colour the love heart.

2 Add letters to complete the names of the people who cared for Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم when he was little.

1. A _ i _ _ h

2. H _ l _ ma _

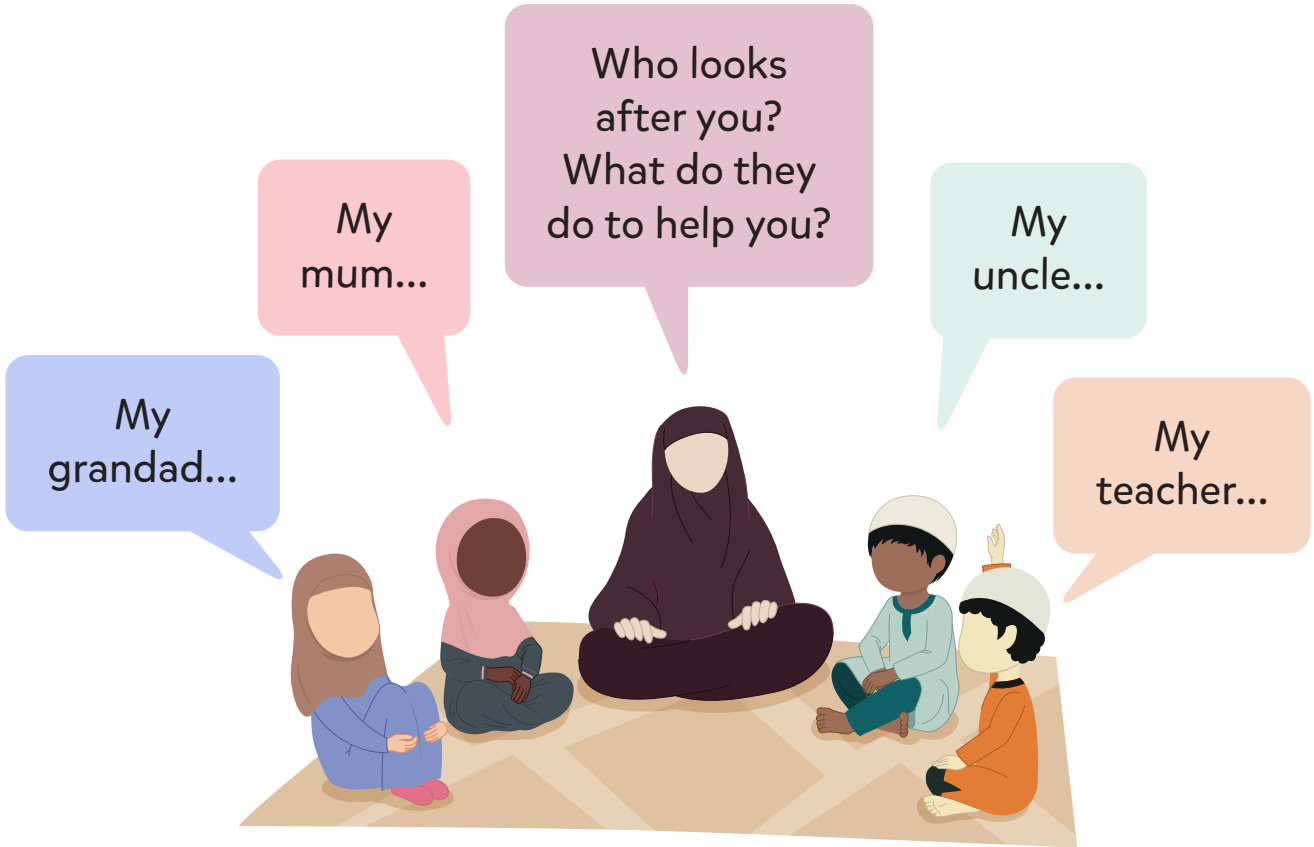

3. Ba _ a _ ah

4. 'Ab _ ul M _ t _ a _ i _

5. A _ _ Ta _ i _

3

Allah is The Most Caring. He gives us people who take care of us. Talk about this with your partner, or share your ideas with the class.

4

Fill in the missing names on the timeline.

