

A Kind King Helps the Muslims

After some time, Allah told Prophet Muhammad ﷺ to call everyone to worship Allah alone. This was not easy. The disbelievers of Makkah became cruel towards the Muslims. They hurt them and made it difficult for them to worship Allah.

The Muslims stayed patient and brave. They never stopped believing in Allah.

Muhammad ﷺ felt very upset. He wanted the Muslims to be safe and happy.

So he ﷺ advised them, “Go to Abyssinia. A fair king rules there. No one is treated unfairly. Stay there until Allah makes things easier for you.”

A small group of Muslims quietly escaped Makkah and sailed to Abyssinia. Later, a bigger group of Muslims joined them. They were all welcomed warmly and treated kindly. They were able to worship Allah freely again!

The kind king of Abyssinia protected the Muslims. Even when the disbelievers of Makkah asked him to send the Muslims back, he said no and turned them away.

He loved the beautiful messages of the Qur'an that the Muslims shared with him.

He told the Muslims, "Live here and worship Allah peacefully."

The Muslims were thankful and happy. They trusted Allah and knew that He will always look after them.

Sometimes doing the right thing is really hard...

I know. But we stay strong and do it for Allah. He سبحانه و تعالی will take care of us and reward us!

1 Guide the boat from Makkah to Abyssinia.

2 Circle two correct answers in every sentence.

In Abyssinia...

The Muslims were treated kindly      horribly      fairly

They worshipped Allah freely      secretly      peacefully

The king was cruel      fair      respectful

3

Colour the picture that shows what a strong Muslim would do in each scenario.

4

Fill in the missing words on the timeline.

1st Year

2nd Year

3rd Year

Muhammad ﷺ shared Islam with his close _____ and friends.

4th Year

Muhammad ﷺ openly called the People of _____ to Islam.

5th Year

Some Muslims moved to _____ to be safe.