

What Breaks My Wudu?

Learning Objectives

In this lesson, I will:

Identify the breakers of wudu

Evaluate my toilet habits

Reflect on the importance of protecting myself from impurities

Key Words

Breakers - نَوَاقِضُ

Fainting

Istinja

T Thinking Starter

Share with your partner all the different ways that you can stay clean and have good hygiene.

Have I Broken My Wudu?

These are some of the actions that break your wudu:

1

Passing urine or stool

2

Passing wind

3

Deep sleep

4

Directly touching the private parts (for males only)

5

Losing control of your senses, due to fainting, drinking alcohol, or taking drugs

Fainting: When someone isn't awake and they can't respond to anything. It's like a deep sleep, but they didn't choose to fall asleep and you can't wake them up easily. It can happen when somebody is hurt or unwell.

Task 1

Complete the words below to list some breakers of wudu:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-------------------|
| 1 Touching private parts | 4 W _____ |
| 2 U _____ | 5 D _____ s _____ |
| 3 S _____ | 6 F _____ |

Task 2

a) Rewrite the words that have faded away from the checklist.

ISTINJA INSTRUCTIONS

- ☐ Step into the toilet with your _____ foot and step out with your _____ foot.
- ☐ Say the _____ for entering and leaving the toilet.
- ☐ Do not face the _____ when sitting on the toilet.
- ☐ Sit properly on the toilet to avoid _____ splashing onto your body, the toilet, or the floor.
- ☐ Wash your private parts thoroughly.
- ☐ Use your left _____ for istinja, and wash your hands thoroughly afterwards.
- ☐ Don't hurry to get up after urinating—wipe away every drop of urine.
- ☐ Wipe and clean the area before and _____ use.
- ☐ Ensure all impurity is washed away.
- ☐ Close or cover the toilet to prevent germs from _____.
- ☐ Check your clothes for stains and change your underwear every day.

b) Self Evaluation: Re-read the list of etiquettes. Tick the ones you already do. Then, make a firm intention to do the rest from now on.

Did You Know?

Approximately 4.5 billion people around the world do not have a toilet in their home.

Can you translate the du'as for entering and leaving the toilet?

IT'S STORY TIME!

The Two Graves

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ once walked past some graves. He heard the sound of two men being punished in their graves.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "They are being punished, but they are not being punished for anything that was difficult to avoid. One of them didn't take care to keep his body or clothes clean from urine, and the other used to spread gossip."

Then, the Prophet ﷺ asked for a fresh palm branch. He broke it into two pieces and placed one piece on each grave.

A Companion asked, "O Messenger of Allah, why did you do that?"

He ﷺ replied, "I hope the punishment will be reduced for them as long as these branches stay fresh and don't dry out." (Nasa'i)

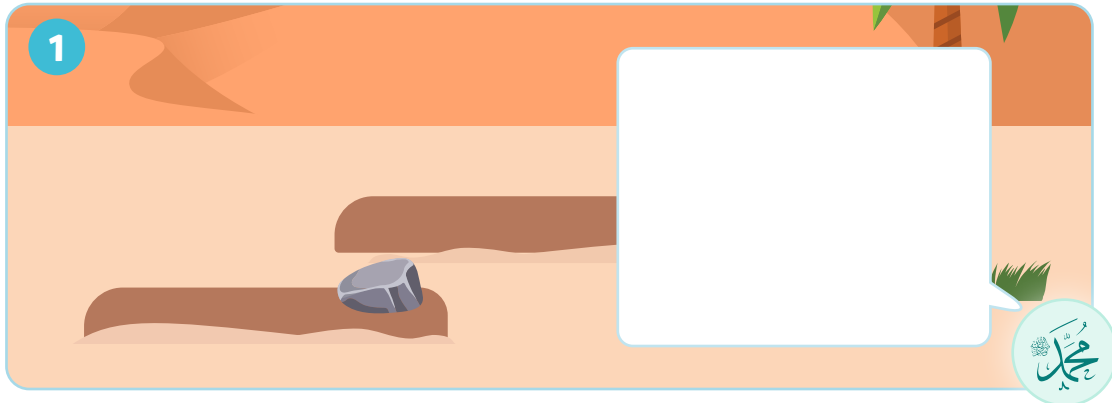

I obey Allah and His messenger ﷺ

Task 3

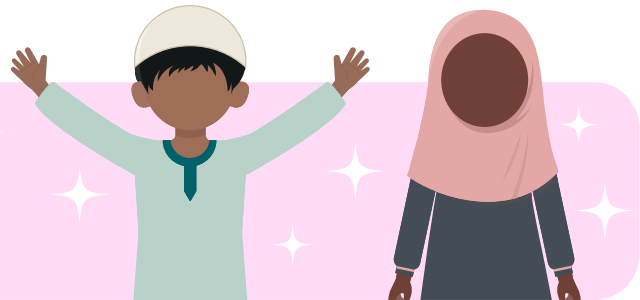

Based on the story of 'The Two Graves', draw the missing picture and write what the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said.

What do we learn from this story?

I Act On What I Learn

I will keep my clothes and body clean from all impurities.

Progress Check

1. Name three actions that break your wudu.

2. List some etiquettes for using the toilet.

3. Why were the two men being punished in their graves?

