

Surah al-Hujurat

Session 3

Have you ever made a false assumption/suspicion about someone, and what was its consequence?

What parable does Allah use for backbiting? Why do you think this has been used?

What standards do you sometimes use, consciously or unconsciously, to measure people's worth?

Actions

Think about the last person you have wronged in the following ways, then write down a short du'ā' and make that du'ā' for them during Ramaḍān.

Ridiculed

Called an offensive nickname

Had a bad thought about

Spied on

Backbited

Ask Allah to remove pride from your heart and to help you overcome the negative traits discussed today.

Repent from your sins on a daily basis so that you don't meet Allah in a state of being from amongst the wrongdoers.

What actions will you work on as a result of the verses discussed today?
