About Quranic Tarbiyah

Vision

Nurturing a Quranic generation who love and live the Quran.

Mission

Nurturing a generation who are guided by revelation, grounded in reality, and who carry forward the legacy of the Prophets ﷺ.

Aims & Objectives

We want every educator and learner to:

1. Develop a deep awareness of Allah, love Him and honour Him.
2. Recognise their purpose in life (i.e. 'ubūdiyyah: servitude), and worship Allah with baṣīrah (clear proof and certainty).
3. Constantly strive to strengthen their īmān and yaqīn (conviction).
4. Love the Messenger ﷺ, and embody his sunnah and character.
5. Become 'people of the Qur'ān' through reflecting and living by it.
6. Constantly strive to attain a pure heart (tazkiyah) and attain iḥsān.
7. Know the legal rulings of all necessary aspects of life (fiqh) alongside their inner dimensions, in order to taste the sweetness of worship.
8. Be confident in their dīn and feel deeply connected and proud of their heritage and history.
9. Develop a love of lifelong learning and a passion to serve the dīn of Allah.
10. Be well-equipped to deal with personal, local and global challenges, and become beacons of justice and mercy for the entire world.

لَقَدْ مَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذْ بَعَثَ فِيهِمْ رَسُولًا مِّنْ أَنفُسِهِمْ يَتْلُوا
عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِهِ ۖ وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَإِن كَانُوا مِن
قَبْلُ لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ

“Indeed, Allah bestowed a favour on the believers when He raised in their midst a Messenger from among themselves — who recites to them His verses, purifies them, and teaches them the Book and wisdom. For indeed they had previously been clearly astray.” (3:164)

The 5 Key Areas of the Quranic Tarbiyah Curriculum

Iman and Tazkiyah

Aims of Iman and Tazkiyah Lessons

- 1 To be strongly connected to Allah: to know Him and love Him
- 2 To love the Messenger ﷺ and to be attached to Him
- 3 To develop strong īmān which leads to ‘amal ṣāliḥ (righteous deeds)
- 4 To constantly strive to purify the heart from its diseases
- 5 To aspire for iḥsān by focusing on the actions of the heart
- 6 To be confident in responding to common doubts and misconceptions
- 7 To be certain of the ultimate authority of the Qur'an & Sunnah īmān is the core of our dīn. It is the first thing we must learn about and it is the first thing we have to nurture in our children. Jundub b. ‘Abdillāh ؓ said, “We were with the Prophet ﷺ and we were young boys, nearing puberty. We learnt īmān before we learnt the Qur’ān. Then we learnt the Qur’ān, and increased our īmān through it” (Ibn Mājah).

‘Ā’ishah ؓ said, “Indeed the first verses to be revealed were from the shorter chapters at the end of the Qur’ān which mention Paradise and Hellfire. When the people were firmly established upon Islam, the verses of ḥalāl and ḥarām were revealed. If the first verse to be revealed was ‘do not drink wine,’ they would have said, ‘we will never stop drinking wine.’ And if the first verse to be revealed was ‘do not commit adultery,’ they would have said, ‘we will never stop committing adultery.’” (Bukhārī). Thus, it is vital that before we teach the dos and don’ts of Islam, we instil in our children the knowledge, love, and reverence of Allah ﷻ, His Messenger and the centrality of the hereafter.

The Essence of Iman

The key focus in the tarbiyah (nurturing) of our children should be to ensure that the essence of īmān is deeply ingrained into their hearts. This is especially more important in our times when we face an onslaught of deadly trials such as atheism, secularism, liberalism and materialism.

īmān has a sweetness: once you taste it, you will never be pleased with a substitute. Our responsibility, as educators, is to ensure that we facilitate this journey whereby our students can experience the sweetness of īmān and worship.

Conversely, when īmān is not firm in the heart, the heart will gradually collapse when faced with trials and temptations. It becomes very easy for doubts to creep into the heart and, if not tended to, could leave one to eventually losing their īmān. Thus, nurturing hearts to taste the sweetness of īmān is a strong protection against doubts.

Knowing Allah (Ma'rifah)

The knowledge of Allah is the foundation of īmān, and it is the best and most important knowledge a person can attain. It is the soul's greatest need, and the path to eternal success. Therefore, it must be imparted into children in a way which befits their understanding and interests. This process should be made relevant, practical and as fun as possible. The more the children know Allah, the stronger their īmān and yaqīn (conviction) in Him will be. The easier it will then become for them to submit to Him and eagerly rush to fulfil His commands.

Once a child knows Allah, he will love Him. Once he loves Allah, he will obey Him.

Children (like adults) can increase their knowledge of Allah and build a deep personal connection with Him through:

- 1 Learning about the Names of Allah
- 2 Reflecting on the creation of Allah
- 3 Connecting to the Qur'ān

Knowing Allah deeply will lead to the cultivation of the 'actions of the heart'. These include: firm belief, sincerity, piety and mindfulness, repentance, trust in Allah, hope, fear, gratitude, patience, love, yearning for Allah and certainty.

Ihsan and Tazkiyah

One of the ultimate goals of Qur'ānic Tarbiyah is to nurture īmān, which then leads to iḥsān. Iḥsān is “worshipping Allah as though you are seeing Him; for if you cannot see Him, He truly sees you” (Muslim). In order to do this, the aforementioned ‘actions of the heart’ have to be constantly cultivated in the hearts.

Similarly, the hearts have to be constantly purified from its diseases (tazkiyah). The heart is the leader of the body: once it is rectified, the rest of the body will be rectified. Thus, cleansing and adorning the heart is an essential part of our dīn, and a prerequisite for īmān to be deeply embedded in the heart.

Activating īmān is the first step in changing behaviour. If īmān becomes deeply ingrained in children, excellent akhlāq will naturally follow. They will willingly treat themselves, their families, their peers, and all of Allah's creation in the best manner. The outer actions will not be mere rituals; rather they will find deep meaning and connection to Allah through them. The Qur'an will not just be a book which they had to memorise — it will be the words of their Lord whom they love, and they will want to 'live' it.

Teach By Example

As educators, we have to constantly nurture ('tarbiyah') our own īmān. This is important to do before, during and even after we have taught our children. It is an ongoing endeavour, until we leave this world. If we seek genuine reform for ourselves and our Ummah, constantly nurturing our īmān and the īmān of those who we are responsible for must become part of our mission in life.

Introduction

All praise and thanks are for Allah, the Lord of the worlds, the Ultimate Guide. May peace and blessings be upon His beloved Prophet, Muhammad ﷺ, who He sent as the best teacher and guide.

Alḥamdulillāh, we are pleased to share with you the 1st edition of the 'Iman Activity Book'. This book aims to instill īmān and the love of Allah ﷻ and His Messenger ﷺ in young children. It consists of 35 lessons, covering five of the six pillars of īmān. The 6th pillar (Qadr) has been omitted in this level to suit the understanding of children at this age.

This book contains 80+ pages of activities to consolidate key concepts and introduce basic reading, writing, math, and fine motor skills. The activities aim to nurture spiritual intelligence and good character (akhlāq).

This book has been prepared to be used as a textbook in a 'limited resource' classroom setting. Teachers are encouraged to incorporate stories, nasheeds, and if logistically possible, craft and physical activities into each lesson. To nurture īmān in the hearts of young learners, engage the minds of your students by holding discussions, asking questions and using examples that they can relate to.

This book may also be used in a home setting. Although every child is different, the average target age of this book is 6 and above. Whilst older children may learn from and use this book independently, younger children may require assistance from an adult.

In order to nurture the love of Allah ﷻ and His Messenger ﷺ in our students, teachers are encouraged to embody the Prophetic akhlāq: to teach with raḥmah (nurturing compassion), rifq (gentleness) and ḥikmah (wisdom); and to win over the hearts of students, just as he ﷺ did. Mu'āwiyah b. al-Ḥakam ؓ said about the Prophet ﷺ "...May my father and mother be ransomed for him! I have not seen a teacher before him nor after him who was better than him in teaching. By Allah, he did not scold me, nor did he hit me or insult me..." (Bukhārī).

We look forward to hearing your feedback and suggested changes which can be incorporated in the next edition inshāAllah.

We pray our young learners will enjoy themselves as they learn about Allah ﷻ, His Messenger ﷺ and our beautiful dīn.

Why Did Allah Send Prophets?

Sometimes we forget why Allah gave us life.
Or we forget that we are going to die, and there will be an afterlife.

Sometimes we might find choosing

مُحَمَّد

ﷺ

My Hero

Muhammad ﷺ loved sweet food and honey.
Sometimes he would make jokes and be funny.

But he would never hurt anyone's feelings or lie.
He did not hit children or make them cry.

Muhammad ﷺ is my hero.
O Allah, make my love for him continue to grow.

I love my Prophet ﷺ.

I Believe in the Hereafter

The Final Day

One day, the entire world will come to an end. Everything will be gone. Allah will then bring back to life everyone.

This day is known as the Day of Judgement. On this day, Allah will judge our deeds, and everyone will be present.

If we believed in Allah and were good in this world,
He will send us to Jannah; Paradise.
But if we did not believe in Allah and were bad, we will be thrown in Jahannam, and pay the heaviest price!
